

Massachusetts Education Policy Fellowship Program, 2016–17

Massachusetts EPFP is a ten-month professional development program for individuals who seek to enhance their knowledge and develop their skills in education leadership and public policy. The program in Massachusetts is one of seventeen sites of the national EPFP program sponsored by the Institute for Educational Leadership in Washington, D.C. The program has been preparing leaders and policymakers in education and human services since 1964.

Massachusetts EPFP is an opportunity to:

- Develop leadership skills and learn about your leadership potential;
- Engage in education policy discussions with experts in the field; and
- Create a network with local, state and national fellows and alumni.

Program Details

The program year begins with an overnight retreat in Ashland, Massachusetts. Fellows meet monthly in Boston on Tuesdays from September through June. Meetings include guest speakers and discussion among Fellows on topics related to leadership and education policy. Massachusetts participants also participate in a full-day session at the State House and meet with Fellows from other states at one regional and one national meeting.

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis through June 24th. Interested applicants are encouraged to submit applications as early as possible. Please visit www.renniecenter.org for application materials and more information about the program.
